Julius Berger and Nigerian Content

Julius Berger Nigeria PLC is a Nigerian company that is dedicated to promoting the development of Nigeria. For us, maximizing local content is therefore a part of our own company culture. We believe that in order to contribute to economic development we must continually increase value added content. We accomplish this by investing in the ongoing training of our employees, the establishment of local production facilities and business support infrastructures, as well as the pioneering of technology transfer.

In addition, Julius Berger is also committed to establishing long-term, mutually beneficial business relationships with local suppliers and subcontractors. We use our experience and expertise to support local partners in increasing their capacity and capabilities, in order to achieve the level of performance demanded by clients in the oil and gas industry. Such measures exemplify Julius Berger's support of the successful implementation of the Nigerian Content Act.

Our aim is to be your Nigerian contractor of choice. We are a company which delivers unmatched quality, timely delivery and an unrivaled commitment to the Nigerian Content cause. As a Nigerian company, we are able to assist your company in increasing your Nigerian content to meet government targets. Julius Berger is your path to Nigerian Content.
